If never had flu vaccine before give a second dose at least four weeks later.

One dose of egg based quadrivalent inactivated vaccine*

If never had flu vaccine before give a second dose at least four weeks later.

Some brands are restricted to use in particular age groups. Practitioners must be familiar with the SPC for particular brands before administering vaccines.