

Core brief

Wednesday, 28 September 2016

Introduction

This issue provides information on NHSGGC staff being physically and verbally assaulted and reminds staff of the last few days of Data Amnesty Month.

NHS staff being physically and verbally assaulted

As latest figures show in the last year more than 3,600 NHSGGC staff suffered verbal or physical assault while at work, we have today issued a press release condemning this abuse of our staff.

Click here to read the full press release.

data • amnesty • month
SEPTEMBER 2016

Last couple of days left of Data Amnesty Month, is your data up-to-date? You could still be in with a chance to win £20 of gift vouchers, courtesy of our friends at Staff Benefits click here to read more.

Are your contact details up-to-date? Click here to check