

Core brief

Monday, 08 May 2017

Introduction

This issue of Core Brief details the appointment of a new chief officer for West Dunbartonshire Health and Social Care Partnership.

---

New Chief Officer appointed to West Dunbartonshire HSCP

A new Chief Officer has been appointed to lead the West Dunbartonshire Health and Social Care Partnership (HSCP).

Beth Culshaw will replace Keith Redpath, who retires in July, at the HSCP which is responsible for delivering all local primary care, community health and social care services.

Beth has worked in the health sector for over 23 years and is currently Head of Health and Community Care with Inverclyde HSCP. She has previously worked as a manager in primary and secondary care, community services as well as in social care.

Jane Grant, Chief Executive, said: "I am delighted that Beth Culshaw has been appointed as the Chief Officer of West Dunbartonshire HSCP.

"Beth has spent her entire career working to improve the health of the people of Clyde and this new role as Chief Officer will give her a fantastic opportunity to build on this. Her knowledge, enthusiasm and leadership skills will benefit the local community in West Dunbartonshire and I look forward to working with her in the years ahead."

Click here to read the full news release.

Are your contact details up-to-date? Click here to check