Introduction

This edition brings you information on the Staff health Strategy and the human resources shared services.

Staff Health Strategy 2017 - 2020

The Staff Health Strategy launched in the September edition of SN is available for staff to download here. Anne MacPherson, director of human resources & organisational development is encouraging all staff to read and engage with the programmes in this ambitious strategy.

Human resources shared services

Work continues on the development of Human Resources Shared Services, with engagement taking place across NHS Scotland on new service models for both Employee Services and Recruitment. Development of eESS is also ongoing. As part of this engagement three sessions have been arranged to update managers in NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde on where we are with both shared services and eESS and to answer any questions you might have. Sessions are as follows:

11 October 2017	Postgraduate Seminar Room (St Mungo's Building), Training Room 1, Lecture Theatre, Glasgow Royal Infirmary	9.00am - 11.00am
11 October 2017	Lecture Theatre 1, Royal Alexandra Hospital	2.00pm - 4.00pm
12 October 2017	Seminar Room 1 L0/A/009, Laboratory FM Building, QEUH	3.00pm - 5.00pm

If you would like to attend one of these sessions, please email Susan Chisholm Susan.Chisholm@ggc.scot.nhs.uk to confirm your place.
