This issue of Core Brief details an important message from nurse director Margaret McGuire on the non payment of NMC registration fees.

NMC non payment of registration fees - implications for staff

Message from Nurse Director Margaret McGuire.

Over the last few weeks a significant number of our registered nurses and midwives have dropped off the NMC register due to a delay/or not paying their registration fees, causing significant distress to them and safe staffing issues for service.

Non payment of fees will result in you being taken off the NMC register for up to six weeks. You will therefore be unable to work either in your substantive or nurse bank post.

Paying your registration fee is now easier than ever. For more information, visit:
