

Core brief

Wednesday, 28 November 2018

Introduction

This issue brings you news about Grant Archibald moving to NHS Tayside and Paul Gray Chief Executive of NHS Scotland stepping down.

Message from Jane Grant, Chief Executive

Grant Archibald, Chief Officer of Acute Services, has been appointed Chief Executive of NHS Tayside.

Cabinet Secretary Jeane Freeman made the announcement today and confirmed Grant would be taking up his new position before the end of the year.

Ms Freeman also announced that the Chief Executive of NHS Scotland and Director General of Health and Social Care for the Scottish Government, Paul Gray, is stepping down in February 2019. Click here to read the full release which announces Grant's appointment and Mr Gray's announcement.

Chief Executive Jane Grant, said: "Grant has been a highly valued member of our senior team. He has been a great asset to NHSGGC and I wish him well in his new role as Chief Executive of NHS Tayside.

"Jonathan Best will resume the position of Interim Chief Officer. The process to advertise and appoint substantively to the post will begin during December."

Are your contact details up-to-date? Click here to check