

Core brief

Thursday 9 August 2018

Introduction

This issue of Core Brief talks about a Swedish delegation visiting the RAH, provides a Brexit update and reminds staff to get there nominations in to the Chairman's Awards.

Swedish delegation visits RAH to learn from Scotland's award winning broken hip treatment team

A team of Swedish healthcare professionals visited Paisley's Royal Alexandra Hospital (RAH) to learn from the award winning team providing care to hip fracture patients.

The seven strong delegation from North Sweden were at the hospital for four days on an educational visit to learn from the Falls and Orthogeriatric services regarded as the best performing in Scotland.

Brexit update

With negotiations still taking place on the UK's exit from the EU, we are continuing with our contingency plans to ensure supplies and services can be maintained.

There is HR support for any staff who may be directly affected by residency status issues, and are in the process of organising staff information events. If you would like to register for the events or have any general enquiries please contact us at: Nhsggc.Brexit@ggc.scot.nhs.uk.

Meanwhile, Health Secretary Jeane Freeman has written to EU and EEA citizens working in the NHS in Scotland to reassure you that her top priority continues to be to ensure that your rights are protected and that you have access to the information and assistance you require.
